Where do I begin?

Five things to consider if you are in need of a new roof on your home.

- Don't delay replacing your roof. It could result in significant issues in the future.
- Select a material, such as steel, that can give you the best return on your investment.
- Consult your insurance agent to determine if any discounts are available with a specific type of roofing material.
- Find a licensed and reputable contractor with experience installing the material you have chosen.
- All warranties are NOT created equal. Read the fine print to really understand the warranty that comes with your choice.
